If approval of a proposed action otherwise would require a meeting at which a certain quorum must be present and at which a certain percentage of total votes cast is required to authorize the action, the proposal shall be deemed to be approved when the date for the return of ballots has passed, a quorum of owners has voted and the required percentage of approving votes has been received. Assessments shall be payable on a periodic basis as determined by the Board of Directors. Generally, general and special assessments shall be allocated equally among the Lots. However, the following assessments may be assessed in different manners: (1) improved and unimproved Lots; (2) any common expense or any part of a common expense benefiting fewer than all of the Lots may be assessed exclusively against the Lots or the Lots benefited; (3) if the Board of Directors determines that any common expense is the fault of any Owner the Association may assess the expense exclusively against the Lot of the Owner.

The Association shall have no obligation to carry such insurance policies.

Section 6.4 Default.

Any assessment or any installment of assessment that is past due shall bear interest at the rate of one and one half percent (1.5%) per month. The Board of Directors may impose interest at its option. The Association shall be entitled to any remedy at law, including a lien, which may be enforced upon compliance with the provisions of the Oregon Planned Community Act and the Declarations. In any foreclosure suit by the Association with respect to such lien, the Association shall be entitled to collect reasonable rent from the defaulting Owner for the use of his or her Lot or shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver. Any default by the Owner under any provisions of the Declarations, these Bylaws or the Oregon Planned Community Act shall be deemed to be a default by the Owner of any mortgage to which the Owner is a party or to which the Lot is subject.

Amendments to the Bylaws may be proposed by a majority of the Board of Directors or by at least thirty percent (30%) of the Owners of the planned community. Amendments shall be approved either by a Majority of Owners present in person or by proxy at a duly constituted meeting or by ballot vote certified by the President and Secretary of the Association as having been adopted in accordance with the Bylaws. Amendments shall be recorded in the office of the Deschutes County recorder's office.

ARTICLE 9. FINES AND CHARGES

Section 9.1 Fines for Violation of Declarations, Bylaws, Rules and Regulations of the Association.

The Board of Directors may levy reasonable fines against a Member for any violation of the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions, the Bylaws, the Rules and Regulations, or the Oregon Planned Community Act. Fines may be levied due to the action of a Member, Member's guest or invitee or an Occupant of a property owned by the Member.

9.1.1 Notice and Hearing: In the event of a violation, the Association shall provide the Member with notice of the violation. The Member shall be given a reasonable opportunity, under the circumstances, to correct the violation. If the violation is a first-time and unintentional offense, the Board may, in their sole discretion, accept assurances that the violation will not be repeated. The Member shall be entitled, upon request made within ten (10) days of notice by the Association, to a hearing before the Board of Directors or any designated committee to contest the violation or fine. At the hearing, the Member may be represented by legal counsel and have a reasonable amount of time to produce statements, evidence, and witnesses. The minutes of the hearing shall contain a written statement of the results of the hearing and the fine, if any, that is imposed. The Association is not required to provide notice and opportunity to be heard for recurring or continuing violations unless at least ninety (90) days have passed from the time of the previous violation. If a hearing is not requested within the ten (10) day period the violation and/or fine shall be noted and imposed.

9.1.2 Continuing Violations: In the case of a continuing or persistent violation: (1) Each day the violation continues after written notice shall be deemed a separate and distinct violation and, subject to a separate fine, every thirty (30) days; and (2) The Board may require the Member to post a bond or other form of security in order to ensure future compliance. For any such violation that cannot be cured immediately, no further fines shall be levied after such time as the Member begins a good faith cure.

9.1.3 Lien Against Lot: Fines shall constitute a personal obligation of the Member, as well as a lien upon the property of the Member, which lien may be foreclosed in the same manner as a lien for unpaid Association assessments pursuant to the Oregon Planned Community Act.

9.1.4 Fees and Costs: The Member shall be liable for all attorney fees, costs and expenses of any nature incurred by the Association incident to the levy or collection of the fine, including appellate proceedings.

9.1.5 Crediting Payments: The Association shall apply all partial payments by the Member to the Member's outstanding balance in the following order:

- Attorney's fees and costs;
- Late fees and interest;

- Regular assessments, with payment being applied to the oldest balance first.

Partial payments will not waive the Association's right to pursue full payment and/or enforce its bylaws, declaration, and rules and regulations.

9.1.6 Schedule of Fines: The schedule of fines is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

Section 9.2 Charges.

In the event any assessments are not received when due, the Association may charge up to five percent (5%) of the payment or Fifty Dollars ($50.00), whichever is greater. ARTICLE 10. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS

The Association shall indemnify any Director, Officer, and may indemnify any employee or agent who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative (other than an action by the Association) by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Director, Officer, employee or agent of the Association or is or was serving at the request of the Association as a

Director, Officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorney fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such suit, action or proceeding, if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interest of the Association, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceedings, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or with a plea of no contest or its equivalent, shall not of itself create a presumption that a person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interest of the Association, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceedings, had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. Payment under this clause may be made during the pendency of such claim, action, suit or proceeding as and when incurred, subject only to the right of the Association, should it be proven at a later time that the person had no right to such payments or to reclaim any payments made during the proceeding. All persons who are ultimately held liable for their actions on behalf of the Association as a Director or Officer shall have a right of contribution over and against all other Directors or Officers and Members of the Association who participated with or benefited from the acts which created said liability.

ARTICLE 11. COMPLIANCE WITH BYLAWS AND OTHER RESTRICTIONS REQUIRED, EFFECT OF NONCOMPLIANCE

Section 11.1 Compliance.

Each Owner and the Declarant shall comply with the Declarations, Bylaws and administrative Rules and Regulations adopted by the Association. Failure to comply shall be grounds for an action maintainable by the Association or by an aggrieved Owner.

Section 12.3 Waiver.

Section 12.4 Compliance.

These Bylaws are intended to comply with the provisions of the Oregon Planned Community Act and the Declarations. In case any of the provisions of these Bylaws conflict with the provisions of the Oregon Planned Community Act, the statutory provisions shall apply.
